I would like to say a very sincere THANK YOU to all the people who helped to make our Christmas masses and celebrations so beautiful. To all the people whose help and presence were obvious and to all the people whose help "behind the scenes" was selflessly offered we are very grateful. As you can well imagine, it takes a small army to accomplish all that we do.

I am also grateful to all who attended our services. Both the school's presentation of A Christmas Pageant and our Christmas Masses were opportunities of prayerful, joyful celebration on the true meaning of Christmas. Special thanks to those who took the initiative to invite family and friends to join them at mass this year. As always, All Are Welcome.

Also, this year we are painfully aware of our need to work harder to promote a "kinder, gentler" world. All of our gatherings have included prayers and thoughts of the people of Newtown, Connecticut.

On a personal note – thank you to all for your prayers and kindnesses to me. It is truly appreciated. May we all enjoy blessings and peace in the coming year.
