First, and foremost, a very HAPPY THANKS-GIVING to you, your families and friends. Of all our national holidays, this is the one that seems to center around true Christian hospitality. Primarily it is the gathering of family, friends and perfect strangers for the sharing of a meal. Please consider joining fellow parishioners Thursday morning at 9:00 AM in the Church for the celebration of Mass – our great prayer of thanksgiving. We will also have the “blessing of the loaves” for your own holiday table.

CONGRATULATIONS to parishioner Patricia Dinneen who will be receiving a Cheverus Award from Cardinal Sean at the Cathedral this Sunday.

The Cheverus Award recognizes Catholics for their dedicated service to the Church. The presentation, begun in 2008 has become an annual celebration of the Archdiocese.

Pat is being recognized for her long participation on the Archdiocesan Pastoral Council, and the fact that she chairs the Social Justice Committee of the Archdiocese. She is the “prime mover” and the driving force behind the Annual Social Justice Convocation.

Thank you again to those who have responded to our Increased Offertory Campaign. I especially appreciate the thoughtfulness of many in their responses. Clearly a lot of thought and consideration has gone into people's responses. Some have asked for parish envelopes, some more have signed-up for On-Line Giving, and a number of parishioners have elected to make larger donations once, twice or three times a year. We appreciate all of these responses.

If you have not responded yet, it is not too late. Please consider joining your fellow parishioners in taking responsibility for the financial wellbeing of Saint Peter Parish.

Feeding the Five Thousand

“They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.” (Luke 9:17)

The Ladies Sodality is sponsoring an oatmeal drive for the month of November. Baskets are at the doors of the church. Our donations will be brought to local Catholic Charities organizations.

In December we will be collecting baby and toddler feeding supplies (baby spoons, bowls, sippy cups) to benefit the Catholic Charities Day Care Center in Cambridge at our annual St. Nicholas Breakfast on Sunday, December 9th after the 10 am Mass.

For more information or if you would like to help out please contact Anna Molettieri at 617-547-4235 x17 or email amolettieri@stpetercamb.org

A Moment of Thanks for A Lifetime of Service

Today's special collection is used to assist religious communities to provide for the retirement and healthcare needs of Sisters who have served in the Archdiocese of Boston. Please take this opportunity to say thank you to Sisters who have served the Church of Boston so generously for so many years. Your contribution does make a difference.

Scripture Study – The Psalms

“O Lord, our Lord, how awesome is your name through all the earth!” (Psalm 8:2)

Plan to join us this coming Advent as we begin a year long two part study of the Psalms. We will begin in Advent for a four week study of Psalms of Praise and Psalms of Trust. This coming Lent we will spend time studying the Psalms of Lament and the Royal Psalms. The Advent and Lent programs are completely independent – you can register for either one or both sessions, and no previous scripture study experience is needed – all are truly welcome. We will use materials from the Little Rock Scripture Study program. The study will meet on Wednesdays November 28th, December 5th, December 12th and December 19th at 7 p.m. in the Parish Center.

If you are interested and would like to register or if you have any questions, please contact Anna Molettieri at amolettieri@saintpetercambridge.org or at 617-547-4235 x17

“Advent at Home” Workshop

How do you celebrate Advent at home? Are you looking for ways to bring in some Advent traditions to your family to offset the consumerist culture the Christmas season can bring? Advent is a deeply spiritual time in our tradition that can often be swept away with the busyness the holidays bring. Please join us as we look at some simple ways Advent can be brought to life at home. Bring your own ideas and traditions to share with others. The workshop will be held on Sunday December 2nd 11:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m. in the School Cafeteria.

Ethics and the University

Father Jim Keenan, S.J. is hosting a series of presentations and conversations at St. Peter’s on the question of ethics and the university. He will cover: student athletes, adjunct faculty, post-tenure accountability, the role of women, cheating, tuition and salaries.

Remaining sessions will be held in the parish center @ 7:30 pm
