Congratulations to Tim Harney! (Please see announcement elsewhere in this bulletin.)

Hard to believe – but – Thanksgiving is here! Please consider joining us for our parish Mass of Thanksgiving, on Thursday morning at 9:00 AM. At this mass we will also bless small loaves of bread for people to take to their other Tables of Gathering and Celebration that day.

There are Special Collection envelopes at the doors of the church that you may use for an offering for the Retired Religious Sister Collection that is taken up at this time every year. Offerings will be accepted both this week and next for this very important collection for the Women Religious.

Cardinal Sean is releasing a Pastoral Letter on the importance of Sunday Mass. It can be found online at:
www.BostonCatholic.org/SundayMassLetter
It is also printed in this week's edition of The Pilot.

And, lastly, be assured that Prayer/Response Cards will be available in the pews as we introduce the new responses and language of the Roman Missal next weekend. Please use them, as it will surely take some time (for both people and priest) to adjust to the new language.

Special thanks to Kim Winter, our Chair, Helen Strejček, our raffle guru who helped along with their committee to make this night a success.

CONGRATULATIONS TO TIM HARNEY:

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

This Sunday, November 20th, Tim Harney, along with 90 other honorees from around the Archdiocese will be presented with the Cheverus Award at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. Cardinal Sean will preside at the 3:00 PM prayer service.

The award is named after Bishop Jean-Louis Anne Magdelaine Lefebvre de Cheverus, the founding bishop of Boston. The oval shaped medal is made of silver and bears the likeness of Bishop Cheverus on one side, and his coat of arms on the reverse side. The medal recipients, laypeople, deacons and religious, are chosen for their service to God and God's people. Most recipients are nominated by their pastor, approved by the regional bishop and Cardinal Sean.

Congratulations, Tim! We thank you for your many years of volunteer service to God and the people of Saint Peter Parish and School. Through your dedication and persistent effort our parish remains a beautiful haven for people to gather and celebrate the life and presence of God among us. We are proud to share this honor with you!

The Adult Parish Choirs

The Adult Parish Choirs provide musical leadership during two liturgies on the weekend, as well as major Solemnities and Feast Days. The choirs are a diverse and friendly community of volunteer musicians. The choir provides a great opportunity to develop vocal and musical skills, and to enhance your singing abilities. Membership is open to all singers, high school age and up.

Seasonal Choir is a combination of both adult choirs and for those who would like to participate in music ministry for the liturgical Celebrations of Christmas and Easter.

Christmas The choir provides musical leadership at the 4:00 P.M. Mass on Christmas Eve, December 24th.

Rehearsals for Christmas - Wednesday evenings
November 30th, December 7th, 14th, and 21st

SOME OBSERVATIONS
ON THE ROMAN MISSAL, THIRD EDITION

“And with your spirit”

At the beginning of Mass, immediately after the Sign of the Cross, the celebrant extends one of three different liturgical greetings to the people. The one that is perhaps most commonly used is “The Lord be with you.” It is a familiar line that will remain unchanged with the new translation. However, our new response will be the first major change in the Order of Mass.

Instead of “And also with you”, we will now be saying, “And with your spirit.” This new response will also be made at the four other times during Mass when this dialogue occurs at the reading of the Gospel, at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer, during the Sign of Peace (when the priest says, “The peace of the Lord be with you always”), and at the conclusion of Mass.

Why the change? At the most basic level, “And with your spirit” is the proper translation of the original Latin text: “Et cum spiritu tuo.” By correctly expressing this dialogue in English, we are actually aligning our translation with that of all the other major language groups, which have long been translating the Latin properly. For example, in Spanish, the response is “Y con tu espíritu.”

But even beyond the linguistic, the recovery of the word “spirit” also carries Scriptural meaning. One form or other of “The Lord be with you” appears multiple times in the Bible, including the greeting given by the Archangel Gabriel to Mary at the Annunciation: “Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you” (Lk 1:28). Then, in the Pauline epistles, multiple variations of “The Lord be with your spirit” are employed as parting words to different church communities. Understood together, this liturgical dialogue in the Mass is an exchange whereby all present - both Priest and congregation - ask that the Holy Spirit (whom we call “the Lord, the giver of life” in the Nicene Creed) establish a stronger communion among us.

This new response of “And with your spirit” will be a difficult change to remember - perhaps one of the most difficult for us laity. However, it will not take long to grow accustomed to the new wording, especially given its frequency. Above all, we should reflect on how it conveys the content of Sacred Scripture, as well as the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church.

Do You Know Someone Who Cannot Make it to Mass?

We know there are people among us - parishioners, family members, neighbors, and friends - who would like to join us at the Eucharistic table but are prevented from doing so by disability or illness. If you know of anyone who is homebound or otherwise unable to come to Mass, and who would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know by calling the parish office 617-547-4235 and requesting a Eucharistic minister to bring communion to them.

“Elder Ministry”

Seeking Eucharistic Ministers for Elderly Facilities and the Homebound

We are looking for volunteers who can bring communion to people who are in nursing homes and assisted living facilities in our area, and also to people who are homebound due to illness or disability. This is a wonderful way to share our Eucharistic banquet with those who are nearby but unable to be with us. You can fit this to your own schedule, and offer as little as an hour or two a week, on weekdays or weekends. No prior experience is needed. Deacon Tim O’Donnell and his wife Elke will provide some training and help with the logistics.

If you are interested in exploring this, please contact
Elke O’Donnell at 617-876-6489 or
