*Thank you for your generosityDo You Know Someone Who Can't Attend Mass?

There are people among us – parishioners, family members, neighbors, and friends - who would like to join us at the Eucharistic table but are prevented from doing so by disability or illness. Eucharistic Ministers already bring the Eucharist to some of these people in their homes. If you know of anyone who is homebound or otherwise unable to come to Mass, and who would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know by calling the parish office 617-547-4235 x12.

We Need You! Bring the Eucharist to Our Neighbors Who Cannot Be With Us

Our parish has a growing ministry to bring communion to people who are in nursing homes and assisted living facilities, as well as to people who are homebound. Please consider volunteering! This is a wonderful way to share our Eucharistic banquet with those who are nearby but unable to be with us. You can fit this ministry to your own schedule, in as little as an hour or two a week, on weekdays or weekends. No prior experience is needed. Deacon Tim O'Donnell and his wife Elke will provide training and help with the logistics. If you are interested in exploring this, please call or email Deacon Tim at 617-897-1148 or todonnell@saintpetercambridge.org

WE PRAY FOR

Those who are having a difficult time in their lives; the imprisoned and the addicted; the hungry and the homeless; those who suffer abuse at the hands of another; for Nancy Kerwin, Kim Anthony, Lisette Barberio and all families and caregivers; for John J. Gallagher, Jr. who died this past week; and for all who have asked for our prayers. The names of those for whom we pray will be on our prayer list for a period of 4 weeks. If you wish to keep any name in the bulletin for a longer period, please email or call the parish office:

saintpetercambridge.org or 617-547-4235.

From the Pastor's Desk

I will be away from the parish, on vacation from Monday, August 11th through Tuesday, August 19th. During that week, there will be NO MORNING MASSES – with the exception of Friday, August 15th – the Holy Day – Mass will be at 8:00 a.m.

A very sincere THANK YOU to Fr. Bill Mulligan, SJ. Bill has been celebrating the 8:00 a.m. Mass at Saint Peter Parish for the last few years, and has been very generous responding to any requests that I have made of him. Now, Bill has been reassigned to parish ministry in New Hampshire. We keep him in our prayers and wish him well in his new endeavors.

This also means that we will not have an 8:00 a.m. Mass on Tuesdays until I can find a willing and available priest to step in.

For the next several weeks you will notice a lot of activity on our property. This is the annual facility maintenance and upgrade. A full report will be given to you in the fall.

And lastly, thank you to all who contribute to our Air Conditioning project. At this point just about $24,000 has been raised. (The parish has pledged $50,000 from parish savings and is hoping to raise the additional $50,000 from donations.) We are moving ahead!

Memorial of Saint Clare of Assisi, 1194 - 1253
Monday August 11th

One of the first followers of Francis of Assisi, she founded the Order of the Poor Ladies. After her death it was called the Order of Saint Clare, more commonly known as the Poor Clares. She wrote their Rule of Life—the first monastic rule known to have been written by a woman.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Friday August 15th

The Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses in the area: St. Peter 8:00 a.m., St. John the Evangelist 7:00 a.m. and 12:10 p.m., St. Paul 8:00 a.m. and 12:10 p.m.

Air Conditioning the Church

For some time now, we have been looking at the possibility of air conditioning the church. I feel that now it's time to move ahead, and I have a proposal for you.

We will commit one half of the total cost (estimated to be in the neighborhood of $100,000) from parish savings, and are asking parishioners to contribute the balance. I believe that together we can make this work and that by sometime this summer we can have the comfort of air conditioning in our worship space. Please let me know what you think! (Also, please know that no donation is too small – or too large.)

Study the Gospel of John 5-Week On-Line Course at Boston College

Study the Gospel of John with written and video guidance provided by noted experts Thomas D. Stegman, S.J., and Daniel J. Harrington, S.J. Each week Fr. Stegman presents a commentary on a designated segment of the Gospel, and participants are also invited to read a commentary by Fr. Harrington. By the end of this workshop participants will have a detailed overview of the entire Fourth Gospel. Additional topics addressed are: how John's Gospel is different from the Synoptic Gospels; the Fourth Gospel and "the Jews"; and how John is used in the Common Lectionary. Please call 800-487-1167 for more information and how to register.

Food Donations Needed

For I was hungry and you gave me food

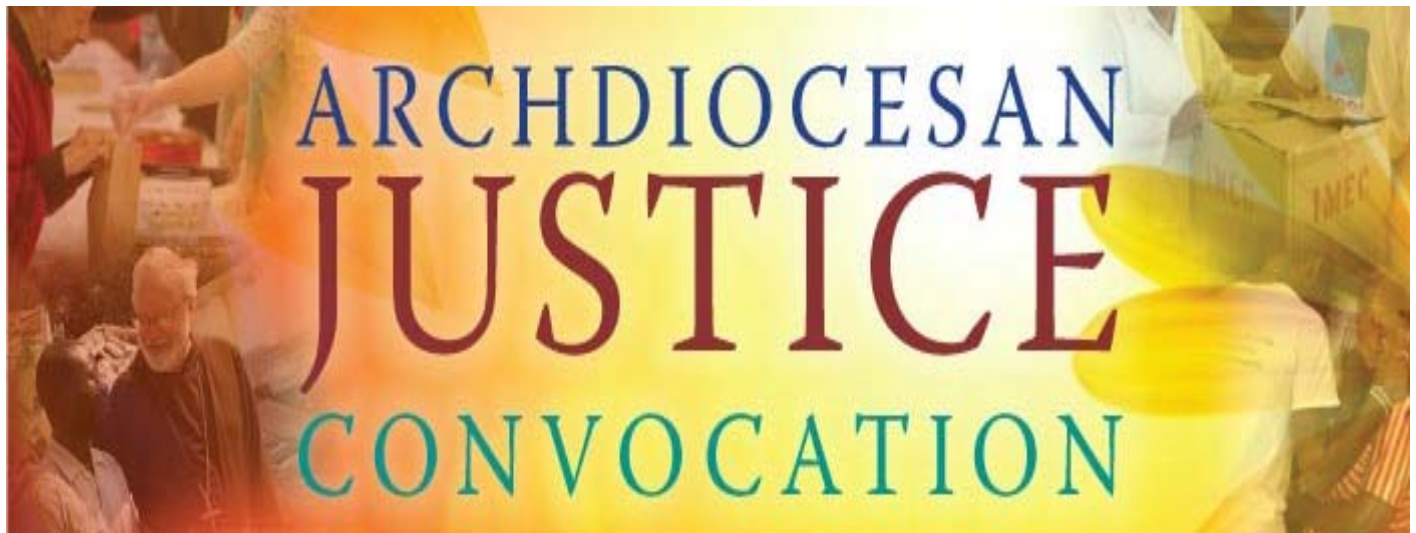

Helping Hand Food Pantry provides groceries and referrals to individuals in need of assistance. They serve between 300 and 400 households each month. The pantry is an outreach ministry of St. James Episcopal Church with a location in the Fresh Pond Apartments.

For the summer months we are collecting cereal, pasta and peanut butter. Please help us to feed our neighbors! You may leave your donations at the doors of the church. Thank you!

RCIA

Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? Perhaps you have been worshipping with us, but have never took steps to become Catholic or perhaps you have joined us from a different denomination but are now being called to the Catholic Church. The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process through which non-baptized individuals or those baptized in another denomination become members of the Catholic Church. This process is also available to someone who may have been baptized Catholic but has not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. To learn more about the RCIA program at St. Peter's please call Anna Molettieri at 617-547-4235 x17 or email at amolettieri@saintpetercambridge.org.
