WE PRAY FOR

Those who are having a difficult time in their lives; the imprisoned and the addicted; the hungry and the homeless; those who suffer abuse at the hands of another; for Jacqueline Stephen, Madhvi Patil, Barbara Mulvey and all families and caregivers; and for all who have asked for our prayers. The names of those for whom we pray will be on our prayer list for a period of 4 weeks. If you wish to keep any name in the bulletin for a longer period, please email or call the parish office:

office@saintpetercambridge.org or 617-547-4235.

From the Pastor's Desk

You probably already noticed the construction work at the front of the church, around the Tabernacle area. This is a temporary wall that has been erected while work is being done on a section of the roof and ceiling. We need to find and stop a water leak, repair the damage, and then reset that area as a Eucharistic Chapel, hopefully before Christmas.

Our Book of Remembrance is located at the front of the church, on the left side of the altar. Please inscribe the names of loved ones who have died. We will remember them in all the prayers and masses of the parish throughout the month of November.

And lastly, during this month of Thanksgiving, we thank God for the many blessings of our lives and are mindful of the needs of many of our sisters and brothers. Your continued support of our food collections for a local food pantry and meals program is both necessary and greatly appreciated.

Reclaiming Francis

UPCOMING EVENTS

Anyone is welcome to participate in any event whether or not they have read the book.

Meet the Author

Ten Lessons from Saint Francis of Assisi and Pope Francis, Presentation by Msgr. Charles M. Murphy Sunday, November 16, 3-4:30 p.m.

Pope Francis looks to St. Francis and the renewal he achieved in the Church of his time for inspiration today. The principal themes are: necessity of personal witness, focus upon the Cross, the beauty of the Gospel, mercy and forgiveness, and simplicity of life.

Charles M. Murphy is Director of the Diaconate for the Diocese of Portland, Maine, and former Rector of the North American College, Rome. He is the author of seven books, most recently The Spirituality of Fasting: Rediscovering a Christian Practice, Eucharistic Adoration: Meditations on the Seven Last Words of Christ, and Reclaiming Francis: How the Saint and the Pope Are Renewing the Church.

Pope Tweets

@Pontifex

The principal mission of the Church is evangelization, bringing the Good News to everyone.

October 30, 2014

A good example brings about so much good, but hypocrisy brings about much evil.

Mary in the New Testament Lectures

Sunday November 9, 10:15 AM

Parish Center

Mary, the mother of Jesus, is one of the most fascinating biblical figures. Join us as we learn more about her in a two-part lecture. Part One looked at Mary in the Gospel of Luke and Acts of the Apostles. Part Two, on November 9th, explores Mary in the Gospel of John. Both lectures are presented by Celia Sirois, an adjunct professor of Sacred Scripture at Theological Institute for the New Evangelization at St John's Seminary.

Do You Know Someone Who Can't Attend Mass? Please Tell Us

There are people among us – parishioners, family members, neighbors, and friends - who would like to join us at the Eucharistic table but are prevented from doing so by disability or illness. Eucharistic Ministers already bring the Eucharist to some of these people in their homes. If you know of anyone who is homebound or otherwise unable to come to Mass, and who would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know by calling the parish office 617-547-4235 x12.

Thank You from Saint Vincent de Paul!

The Saint Vincent de Paul Conference sincerely thanks our fellow parishioners for their support of our first ever "Friends of the Poor Walk." The effort raised more than $2,500 to support Conference efforts. We are working on individual "thank you" notes for those who contributed by check and expect that these can also be used for tax purposes. Please contact us through the Parish office with any questions or if you would like to join us. All are welcome!
