From the Pastor's Desk

It's Back! Yes, the Grand Annual Collection is making a return to Saint Peter Parish this year. Truthfully, it had been my hope with our Increased Offertory Campaign a few years ago that we would no longer need to take up this annual collection – and that the Offertory would be sufficient. Initially this seemed to work but it is clear now that the increased part of that campaign is gone, and we need to return to the Grand Annual in order to pay our bills.

This past week we mailed a request letter to all registered families in the parish. Please be as generous as your means allow. No gift is too small (or too large) and be assured that your donation will be put to good use! Thank you.

And again, please be sure to register for one of our exciting adult programs this fall. Looking ahead to future collaboration we have also invited parishioners of Saint John's to join us for any or all of these faith formation opportunities.

Scripture Study: Book of Isaiah Wednesdays Beginning October 29th

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer, you shall cry for help, and he will say: "Here I am!"

Isaiah 58:9

Some of the most hopeful images we have in Scripture come from the Book of Isaiah. Join us as we learn about our ancestors in faith, their struggles, hopes and vision for the future. We will begin this fall for a seven-week study of the first part of the Book of Isaiah. This coming Lent we will complete the study in a six-week study. No previous scripture study experience is needed – all are truly welcome. We will use materials from the Little Rock Scripture Study program (a reader and a study guide) and a Bible. There is a reading assignment and reflection questions each week. We will spend our time together discussing Scripture, the discussion questions and listening to an audio lecture. The study will meet on Wednesdays, 7-8:30 p.m. in the Parish Center, October 29 – December 17 (no meeting on November 26). If you are interested and would like to register or if you have any questions, please contact Anna Molettieri at amolettieri@saintpetercambridge.org or at 617-547-4235 x17.

Dinner and Discussion This Sunday How Do You Pass On the Faith? October 19th, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Join us for a light dinner and discussion in the Parish Center—this time about how you pass on your faith. Four parishioners—Nancy Genty, Patricia Parent, and Francesca and Michael Pfrommer, will share their perspectives and experiences, followed by a general discussion. Please call or email Bob Flaherty to let us know you are attending: 617-547-4235 x16 rflaherty@saintpetercambridge.org

UPCOMING EVENTS

Anyone is welcome to participate in any event whether or not they have read the book.

Talk by Daniel P. Horan, O.F.M., Wednesday, October 22, 7-8:30 p.m.: “St. Francis of Assisi: His Life, Legacy and Relevance for Today”

St. Francis of Assisi, one of the most popular saints, has received renewed attention after Pope Francis took his name. This presentation offers a deeper insight – going beyond the popular stories and legends – into St. Francis’s life and context, providing a richer understanding of his world while also highlighting his relevance for today.

Daniel P. Horan, OFM, a Franciscan friar, has published extensively – both books and articles – about Franciscan spirituality. He is a frequent lecturer and retreat director across the United States and Europe. Having taught in the religious studies and theology departments at the university level, Father Horan is currently completing his PhD in theology at Boston College.

FAITH FACTS

Pharisees and Phylacteries

The "Picture to Finish" depicts Jesus showing a coin to the Pharisees.

The Pharisees have little boxes strapped to their foreheads. These little boxes were worn by devout Jewish men on their foreheads, and also on their left arms, at certain times. The boxes were called "phylacteries" and also "tefillin." They were made of leather, and contained strips of parchment with verses from the Bible written upon them.

The verses were: verses 4-9 of Deuteronomy, Chapter 6; verses 13-21 of Deuteronomy, Chapter 11; and verses 1-16 of Exodus, Chapter 13.
