WE PRAY FOR

Those who are having a difficult time in their lives; the imprisoned and the addicted; the hungry and the homeless; those who suffer abuse at the hands of another; Fr. Dan Harrington SJ, Lyn Flaherty and all families and caregivers; and for all who have asked for our prayers. We also pray for those who have died Tomas and Gladys Celis

The names of those for whom we pray will be on our prayer list for a period of 4 weeks. If you wish to keep any name in the bulletin for a longer period, please email or call the parish office.

"Sometimes I just like to sit there quietly and pray by myself during mass."

On the Other Hand.....

What if the priest, the lector, Eucharistic ministers,

Organist, cantor etc. decided to "sit quietly and pray by myself" during mass? What would that do to the Mass?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Thank you to parishioners for your great effort at adjusting to new schedules, and for your efforts to be informed and “jump into” the busy pace of parish and school life.

Religious Education programs for Grade/High School have started. If you still need to register please contact Bob Flaherty at the Religious Education Office and he will be happy to help you.

We are very excited about planning the Connect Weekend for the parish on the weekend of October 19 and 20. Further details will be posted in each week’s bulletin.

And, lastly, I am not sure that Fr. Dan Harrington SJ will be able to come for a personal time of greeting and appreciation, so I am publishing his address and encouraging people to send him a card or note.

Scripture Study – Parables of the Kingdom

“Do you not understand this parable?” (MK 4:13) is the question Jesus posed to his disciples. Just as the first disciples often did not understand Jesus’ many parables, so it is for listeners and readers nearly two thousand years later.” (from Parables of the Kingdom)

The parables offer us a glimpse into the kingdom of God and allow us the opportunity to think in new ways. Plan to join us this fall as we begin a yearlong two part study of the parables. We will begin this fall for a six week study of the parables in Mark and also found in Matthew. This coming Lent we will spend time studying the parables unique to Matthew and those developed in Luke. The Fall and Lent programs are independent, and no previous scripture study experience is needed – all are truly welcome. We will use materials from the Little Rock Scripture Study program. The study will meet on Wednesdays October 30, November 6, November 13, November 20, December 4, and December 11th, 7-8:30 p.m. in the Parish Center.

If you are interested and would like to register or if you have any questions, please contact Anna Molettieri at amolettieri@saintpetercambridge.org or at 617-547-4235 x17.

Share Your Faith and Time—Somebody's Knockin' at Your Door!

No one who lights a lamp hides it away or places it under a bushel basket, but on a lampstand so that those who enter might see the light (Luke 11:33).

From the time of the early disciples, our faith and traditions have been handed down to us, person to person. We are all called to continue this process of evangelization—to worship, learn about, and share together the Good News. Please consider, with an open heart, the Holy Spirit's prompting you to participate in our religious education program, in whatever capacity. Call or email us to find out how you can help. And answer cheerfully if someone should come knockin' at your door!
